How Rising Stars are Selected

Ballots are mailed to all Texas lawyers selected for the 2006 Super Lawyers list. Nominees are up-and-coming attorneys who are 40 years or younger or in practice fewer than 11 years.

Out-of-firm votes carried greater point value than in-firm votes.

Background research is conducted on nominees, evaluating indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement, including verdicts and settlements, transactions, representative clients, experience, honors and awards, pro bono and community service.
